

OACTA AWARDS:

Not all awards will be distributed annually. Members are welcome to provide nominations to the OACTA Awards Committee who will make recommendations to the OACTA Board of Trustees. OACTA Awards will be presented at the OACTA Annual Meeting held in November.

Excellence in Advocacy Award

The "Excellence in Advocacy Award" is designed to honor lawyers who have distinguished themselves over a number of years by their professionalism, intelligence, creativity, judgment, personality, sensitivity, civility, advocacy skills, community involvement, efforts to educate newer attorneys, and effective representation of their clients both in and outside of the courtroom. It also recognizes contributions beyond their normal roles as an advocate.

This honor may be made to a present and/or former practicing attorney who has served as a pillar of the bar. The Excellence in Advocacy Award will be presented to the recipient or a member of the recipient's family, or other representative (if the recipient is deceased or cannot otherwise be in attendance) at the OACTA Annual Meeting.

Award criteria: A reputation for representing clients effectively; Demonstrated advocacy skills; A reputation for professionalism and civility; Good judgment in the preparation of trial matters and appeals; Civic, community and bar activities. Candidates must have practiced law for at least 25 years (or in the case of present or past member of the judiciary, at least 15 years) and meet (or have met during the time practiced) OACTA eligibility requirements. It is not necessary that the nominee be currently living and/or practicing law or be a member of OACTA.
