JUDGE COLLEEN A. FALKOWSKI

Until further order of Court, any attorney, party, or self-represented litigant who has traveled outside Ohio shall not appear in this Court for 14 days after return to the State of Ohio. There are no exceptions. Attorneys and self-represented litigants are ordered to file any request for a continuance during the above time frame BEFORE the start of travel out of state.

Guardians ad litem are hereby ordered NOT to have any in person contact with parents and children on an appointed case for 14 days after return to the State of Ohio from out of state travel.

Attorneys are reminded as Officers of the Court that full disclosure of any travel outside the State of Ohio is now required. Vacation notification letters sent to the Court pursuant to Local Rule 7.02 shall note any and all travel destinations.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
