Substantive Law Committees:

DRI Non-OACTA Member: An attorney who is a current member of DRI and has never been a member of OACTA.

Please consider joining an OACTA Committee! It's a great way to establish and demonstrate your expertise in your primary practice area(s). And it's also a great way to meet and deepen relationships with your counterparts across the state, as well as your current---and potential future---clients. OACTA's Substantive Law Committees are called upon to play a larger role in the delivery of the association's key membership services, such as CLE programming, publishing, and web content development. Please indicate your interest in serving on any of the following committees:
