

Tabitha Justice and Nick Subashi of Subashi & Wildermuth recently represented Nationwide Agribusiness Insurance Company, and Nationwide Mutual Fire Insurance Company in a two-week jury trial in the Clinton County Court of Common Pleas. Tabitha and Nick prosecuted a declaratory judgment action on Nationwide's behalf regarding a million dollar-plus fire claim. The jury unanimously found that the policyholders had, directly or indirectly, intentionally caused the fire which had destroyed their house. Retired Greene County judge, the Hon. Timothy Campbell, presided over the trial.
